Jim Mathias Fights Back

National Alliance activist Jim Mathias is fighting back with panache and gusto against the trumped-up charges of "carrying a firearm on school grounds" which were laid against him months after he was noticed — and, of course, not arrested — engaging in the perfectly legal protected free speech activity of distributing National Alliance fliers at a local stadium parking lot. As Kevin Alfred Strom reported recently on our American Dissident Voices radio broadcast:

> Mr. Mathias was "on school grounds" like someone on the sidewalk in front of the Indian embassy is "climbing Mount Everest." He was at a community stadium that hosts commercial sports and other events, not on the campus of any school.

The stadium, in fact, does not even abut the grounds of any school. Here is Jim's report of the latest happenings in his case:

> After meeting with my court-appointed attorney, I have to admit he's earning my respect for the job he's doing, the effort he puts in, the professional demeanor he brings, and the forward thinking exhibited — and he said he was glad to have landed this particular case as he has a special fondness for the First Amendment.
> A "deferred judgment" could be offered by the state — provided a guilty plea was made on my part. I researched how that would affect these [constitutional] issues that I've been making motions about, and discovered that I could still make an appeal for rulings rendered against my arguments on law. I'm not terribly excited about doing things that way, and want to push these bastards to the wall — so I think that when that offer comes I'm going to have a prepared counteroffer for them to chew on; one they won't like at all — but they've aroused my anger and I can hardly wait to turn the tables and go after them civilly. My attorney has advised that I keep the copies of the police report wherein they incriminate themselves by stating they approached me based on the contents of the fliers.
> I do look forward to beating these charges, and I'll want the whole world to know it.

ACLU Letter

The National Office has requested assistance from the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) as part of our efforts to fight the politically-motivated denial of financial services to the Cosmotheist Community Church. We are, of course, aware that the ACLU has a serious tilt toward leftist causes and a large number of Jews among its leaders, but it is possible that an honest and energetic staff member there will take an interest in our case and the important issues it raises for freedom of religion and freedom of speech in this country. They did represent the organizers of last year's pro-White protest in Charlottesville. The text of our letter follows:

I am writing to ask whether the ACLU would consider representing the Cosmotheist Church against the credit card processor service providers PayPal and Stripe.

In the months since the "Unite The Right" rally in Charlottesville, Virginia on 12 August, 2017, a rally in which the ACLU represented the rally organizers in federal court, credit card processors conspired to deny certain organized groups (and individuals) access to credit card processor and similar services independent of whether or not they were in attendance at the rally and independent even of whether or not they endorsed the rally. The only common factor in these denials is said individuals' or organizations' expressed beliefs on racial matters.

It is unlikely that the credit card processors, which began to act within a couple of days of the rally, did so unilaterally as a bloc. Most likely they were directed or encouraged to do so by actors operating in the background.

The reason for this denial of service is the notion that the targeted groups are "hate groups" who should not have ordinary rights like freedom of speech, freedom of association, freedom of assembly, or access to credit card or other e-commerce services, the latter two having so extensively replaced other means of doing business (such as through the US mail) that access to them should be legally regarded as no different than access to public utilities.

Our church, the Cosmotheist Church, which has been denied services by PayPal and Stripe in the wake of these events, is not a political group but a formally accepted, tax-exempt, and long-established church. And our church did not participate in the Charlottesville rally nor did it endorse, promote, or even acknowledge the event. Some, though not all, of our church's members are also associated with the National Alliance, an educational organization that does deal with political issues – but the National Alliance also was a non-endorser and non-participant in the Charlottesville event, though it did publish articles about the rally on its news Web site.

PayPal and Stripe now preposterously allege that our Church, which simply sells printed and audio materials such as books and CDs, and accepts donations, is a "high risk merchant" whose "activities," they say, are in breach of their terms of service. We are aware that the denials of service to other organizations issued in the wake of the Charlottesville event used the same or similar pretexts.

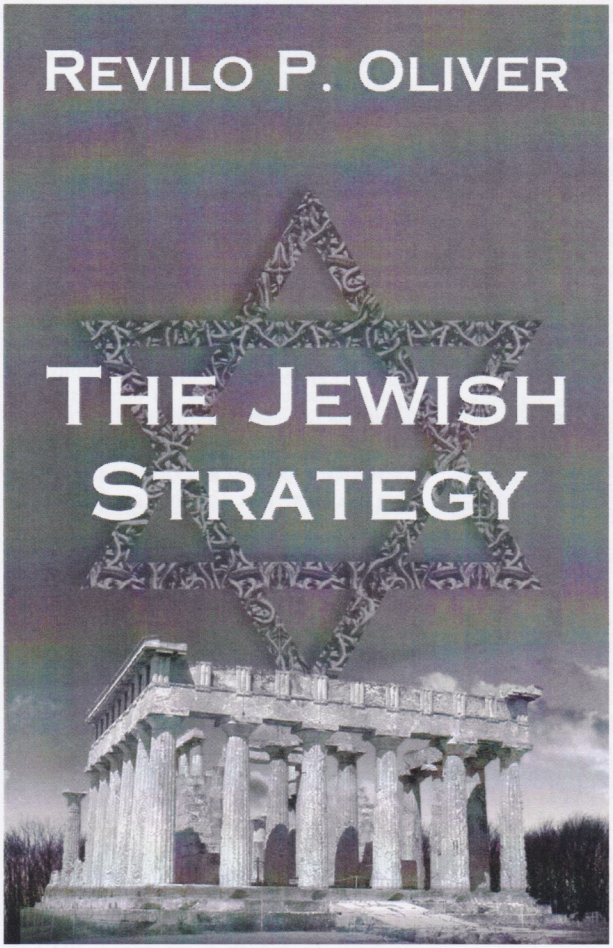
Our Church's sole public activity is to run a Web site that explains our faith, Cosmotheism, a Nature-based, life-centered philosophy that combines the ancient ideas of pantheism with knowledge obtained from modern-day science. It posts articles about historical figures who have expressed Cosmotheist ideas and, to raise funds, it has an online store. The church's doctrines do have racial implications.

I have enclosed copies of the relevant correspondence we have had with PayPal and Stripe, notifying them of our objection to their denial of our services. We believe that this is a case of flagrant discrimination based upon our religious beliefs. Please let us know your thoughts about representing us in this matter.

Sincerely, William W. Williams; Trustee, Cosmotheist Community Church

Our History is "Hate"?

This month the large online book publisher and distributor Lulu, without prior notice, abruptly closed the account we have had with them since 2012 to print Dr. Pierce's final book, Who We Are (WWA), in a print on demand (POD) format. Lulu effectively banned WWA since they were the only firm authorized to print that title. Lulu can't sell copies of WWA to anyone else. The book's copyright belongs to the National Alliance. We are attempting to get our digital files back from Lulu and will procure another publisher, one way or another, whether they cooperate or not. Surely there are printers willing to produce Dr.



William Pierce's comprehensive history of the White race, make their profit, and not buckle to pressure to ban the book because it allegedly offends the tender sensibilities of someone in the "global community," as Lulu informed us in mid-March:

> It has come to our attention that your Content, titled Who We Are may be in violation of the Lulu Membership Agreement, which states that your Content cannot contain material that is intellectual property of another, invasive of privacy rights, defamatory or otherwise questionable and/or determined by us in our sole discretion to violate our Membership Agreement.
> Offensive Material — Items such as crime-scene pictures, videos, pictures and videos of cruelty to animals, and extremely disturbing materials. This includes content that Lulu deems to promote harm, threaten, promote the harassment, intimidation or abuse of, or promote discrimination against others based solely on race, ethnicity, national origin, sexual orientation, gender and gender identity, religious affiliation, age, disability, disease, or immigration status. Lulu reserves the right to determine the appropriateness of content sold on our Site. Also, be aware of cultural differences and sensitivities. Some materials may be acceptable in one country, but unacceptable in another. Please keep in mind our global community of customers. As a result, we must remove your Content from availability and terminate your Lulu Account.

We had placed a small order with Lulu for 20 copies of WWA for our online Cosmotheist Book Store — the only copies in existence now for sale anywhere — and received those books after having our account summarily terminated. We increased the price of present stock of each WWA copy to $50 temporarily until we can find a new printer.

Book News; The Jewish Strategy

Hans Schmidt's Jailed in "Democratic" Germany and Hitler Boys in America have been added to our online bookstore, after first being offered to members last month as a special two-book package.

Dr. Revilo P. Oliver's excellent The Jewish Strategy has also been added to our expanding Cosmotheist Book Store offerings, and should be visible in the online store by the time you read this, or very soon thereafter. The url is: cosmotheistchurch.org/shop

National Alliance Media Director Kevin Strom has now generously licensed the rights to this and other valuable works by Dr. Oliver to Cosmotheist Books. Professor Oliver, a personal friend of both Dr. Pierce and Mr. Strom, stands as one of the most important writers of the 20th century, and his works will be a very important addition to our offerings.

"No" to CBS

A CBS television network production team contacted Chairman Williams earlier this month to try and get permission to use The Turner Diaries as a prop in one of its serial episodes, not on its regular network but on its new subscriber-only CBS All Access network, in a series called The Good Fight. After a quick investigation it became clear to Chairman Williams that The Good Fight is simply more Jewish trash propaganda, pushing homosexuality and interracial mixing.

Our Chairman made it clear to the CBS All Access production team that they were forbidden to use The Turner Diaries in any way in their TV show, knowing they would portray it as "hate." If there happens to be any Alliance members who subscribe to CBS All Access programming, please monitor The Good Fight to see if they dare use The Turner Diaries after being told not to, and report to the National Office if they defy our denial of its use.

Correspondence

Dear Chairman Williams: I am interested in forming a National Alliance Local Unit here in central Florida. The time is right and I believe that I am the right person to lead it. I've been a National Alliance member off and on since the 1990s. My initial education was from The Best of ATTACK! and National Vanguard book that was mentioned in the February BULLETIN... I have seen many groups, organizations, and personalities come and go over the years, but it is the National Alliance that is by far the best and most stable. $6 enclosed for 100 more Alliance business cards. — J.G., Florida

Hello my fellow National Alliance kinsmen. I am living currently in the communized state of California. Terrible. I have been a member of the National Alliance since May of 2017. I was always racially aware, however. Living in the state of California, with its anti-citizen policies and its favoring of illegal aliens, especially those that commit crimes, has made me sensitive to matters of race. My recent radicalization has nothing to do with President Trump, as the mainstream media would have you believe, but is actually caused by left-wing Democrats like Governor Jerry Brown, Senator Kamala Harris, and Lieutenant Governor Gavin Newsome. These people are violators of the laws they are supposed to uphold when they took office, who have twisted their positions and the truth. If you disagree with their criminality you are called a "racist." It's polarizing the nation and I'm just another White man that has fully come home. Cheers! — B.M., California

Chairman Williams responds: Those so-called "liberal" politicians' anti-White policies are just the beginning of the outrages taking place in California these days, B.M. Your state's status as a "sanctuary" for non-White invaders, many of whom are violent criminals, is an indicator that La Raza's so-called reconquistadors are openly, with the help of traitors and Jews, seizing the southwestern US — what they call "Aztlan" — with an eye to eventually turning North America into their "Golden continent," supplanting what was White America and Canada. We are pleased you decided to join the National Alliance and give us another foothold in California.

I'll soon discuss Florida possibilities with you, J.G.

Speaking of The Best of ATTACK! and National Vanguard (BANV), we announced last month that we were in the process of having that book reprinted. That process has been slowed. The book's odd, large size will require re-formatting to meet modern printing standards. The same company that printed the original 1984 edition was bought by our current printer, but they didn't keep the 34-year-old files. We will adapt to get BANV back out to the public to influence more of us like it did you, me, and so many others.

Dear Chairman Williams: Here is $200 of the $300 pledged by me for 2018 ($25 per month). I will send the balance as soon as my tax refund arrives. I write this on the first day of spring. May our National Alliance take root in the hearts and minds of millions and millions of White people worldwide.

I know first hand that many Whites, sick of the kosher status quo, want radical change. They want to reverse the downward trend. I recently had three young Whites telling me about Jewish anti-White schemes and propaganda without me bringing up the JQ (Jewish question) first. Thank you and the National Office staff so much for your dedication and perseverance, putting all the pieces back together, keeping our National Alliance alive and breathing. No small task, I'm sure. You all are doing a great job! For the great White race, — J.H., Arizona

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

Building Bridges

As the current National Alliance Chairman and as a man of my race, I was honored to have been invited by the New Order organization to celebrate the centennial anniversary of the birth of George Lincoln Rockwell at a small gathering on March 10 in Bloomington, Illinois. Both the New Order and the National Alliance trace a significant part of their beginnings to Commander Rockwell. Here is an excerpt from the New Order's report on the event:

National Alliance Chairman Will Williams was the guest of honor at the meeting. Chairman Williams spoke briefly, encouraging cooperation between the NEW ORDER and the National Alliance, and he presented an original framed NSWPP [National Socialist White People's Party] poster from the 1970s.

My call for more cooperation between our groups was well-received by those in attendance. The New Order and the National Alliance are adult groups of serious, responsible Whites who share many of the same goals for our people and for our people's future.

The Alliance maintains a policy of independence: There are very few organizations with which we choose to associate in any way. The controlled media and our enemies have attempted to associate the Alliance closely with the loosely structured, currently fractured, big tent "alt-right movement," even going so far as to falsely claim the Alliance was involved in planning the events in Charlottesville last August.

Our cooperation with others is extremely selective. We have also worked with Heritage and Destiny (H&D), the influential British magazine that keeps us current with racial-nationalist news in the United Kingdom and Europe generally. The H&D editors published this report in the current, March/April issue:

Sir — It has been more than three years since H&D reported that I had become the new Chairman of the US-based National Alliance, and nearly that long since you interviewed me about the Alliance's progress back then (Issue #65). To update H&D readers, I can report that our Alliance is now stabilized, solvent, and growing steadily, if slowly, after fighting off several court challenges by those who would destroy the organization that Dr. William Pierce founded nearly 45 years ago.

Various widely-disseminated anti-Alliance "fake news" articles by the [intemperate descriptors] "hate" watchdogs at the Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC), claiming the Alliance was finally dead, were proven wrong, as usual. Your 2015 interview of me helped refute the lies of our enemies. Thank you again for that and for occasionally mentioning the National Alliance in the pages of H&D.

The SPLC is currently making a fuss over our annual Love Your Race campaign that peaks around mid-February (Valentine's Day), describing it as "hate." The fliers can be downloaded in 30 different languages from our Web site.

I was surprised to read the full-page letter from convict Bill White in H&D issue #81, criticizing Martin Kerr for things he wrote in his review of the Jewish Hollywood movie Imperium in issue #79.

Bill White is right where he belongs, in prison. His notorious grandstanding activities in fringe political movements in the US make me suspicious that White has Jewish roots, if his physical appearance is not enough to raise doubts. The only people who publish White in the US are the disgraced frauds Harold Covington and Alex Linder, both virulently ant-National Alliance, and both spreading disinformation on the Internet — because they can, because our cause does not yet have the authority to police itself to be rid of their disruptive, counterproductive ilk.

Linder is currently providing a platform for an admitted thief — and paid informant for the SPLC — to smear the National Alliance and our leadership. This on a supposedly pro-White forum!

Several years ago, Linder encouraged White, who was a moderator on his forum at the time, to repeatedly make the outrageous, totally unsubstantiated claim that I am a murderer and child rapist! So I have felt the sting of White's poisonous pen personally. White, like Covington, is a constitutional liar, who will attack his betters, like Martin Kerr, Chief of Staff of New Order, a time-tested ally and serious National Socialist of the very top rank.

Yes, Bill White is right where he belongs. We in the Alliance thank the State for removing the disreputable troublemaker from our midst.

Will White Williams, National Alliance Chairman; Laurel Bloomery, Tennessee, USA.

That H&D report will disturb National Alliance enemies monitoring the "movement" grapevine; in it they will recognize cooperation and shared interests among serious people, rather than the usual competition and backbiting.

I know how to deal with enemies of the National Alliance, some of whom actually work with the SPLC against us while simultaneously claiming to be racial-nationalists. No other members besides me are authorized at this time to engage the Alliance's enemies on the Internet or otherwise, unless permission in writing is obtained from the National Office. A wise mentor once told me, "It doesn't matter the champion pedigree of the dog that gets in a fight with a skunk. After the dog kills the skunk he'll smell like the skunk."

Members are encouraged to write letters to print and online publications, promoting the National Alliance and its message. Concentrate on creative Alliance-building; leave skunk-fighting to me. W. W. W.
